Sermon Notes

A Spirit-filled Church

Acts 2:42-47

In the second chapter of Acts, we see the Holy Spirit at work in amazing ways. He empowered Peter to stand and deliver a sermon that is simple, scriptural and Christ-exalting. Through that Word-centered sermon, the Spirit works in the hearts of the people. They are broken and stunned by the reality of their sin and cry out for a remedy.

Peter's sermon called for repentance and obedience, and 3000 people did just that. They were baptized in water, making an open confession of Christ, and outwardly expressing the reality of their changed heart.

Jesus had told his disciples that after he returned to his Father in heaven they would perform greater works than they had seen him do. (John 14:12) In one dynamic display of grace and power, they saw it happening. Earlier in the day there had been 120 followers of Christ. Now there were 3000!

What happens when 3000 spiritual newborns are filled with the Spirit and brought together in a church? We see the answer in today's passage. The reality of inwardly changed hearts is made evident in the visible reality of gospel-centered lives. This new community of faith, this new Spirit-filled church, displayed key characteristics that were then, and still are today, necessary for any church to grow in spiritual maturity, fellowship, worship and evangelism.

A Spirit-filled church is marked by devotion to the Word (teaching)

A Spirit-filled church is marked by a deep devotion to one another (fellowship)

A Spirit-filled church is marked by Christ-centered worship (breaking of bread & prayer)

A Spirit-filled church is marked by a winsome witness (favor with the people & growth)

Wednesday

Think about this week's questions for group discussion:

How did this look at the first days of the Spirit-filled church affect the way you view yourself as a member of the Body of Christ?

What are the greatest contemporary challenges we face in imitating this early Christian community?

What is the biggest obstacle standing between you and deep, genuine relationships with other believers?

Be > Do

Thursday

In your journal, spend some time considering the following:

What insights have you had while internalizing this week's passage?

How specifically will you seek to apply its truths in your home/workplace/life in general?

Do
