With Jesus – You Win; Oppose Him – You Lose; Count On It!
ACTS 12 (Pew Bible page 920-921)

The church is growing. The gospel is advancing. Lives are being changed and whole cities are being impacted by the “Christians” (Acts 11:27). Before Luke tells about the next big step in the advancement of the gospel, the first missionary journey in Acts 13, he provides us with a story about opposition against church. The kingdom is advancing, but it comes at a cost. Jesus had promised his followers, individually and as a group, that they would face persecution. But he also promised to be with them during the trails and that, in the end, they would come out victorious.

John Stott wrote, “Indeed, throughout church history the pendulum has swung between expansion and opposition, growth and shrinkage, advance and retreat, through it all with the assurance that even the powers of death and hell will never prevail against Christ’s church, since it is built securely on the rock. (Message of Acts)

We need to be reminded that as we progress in this journey of faith, we do so in enemy territory. If we are walking with Christ and seeking to advance the gospel in our community, we will face opposition. You can count on it! But the success of the gospel and the advance of God’s kingdom is never in doubt. We can face this conflict and persecution with the unshakable assurance that Christ will win! You can count on it!

Violent Political Whims and Unfathomable Sovereign Plans (12: 1-4)

Urgent Intercession and Miraculous Intervention (12: 5-17)

Man’s Idolatry and God’s Retribution (12: 18-24)

The Word of God is Increasing and His Kingdom Will Never Fail. Count On It!
