God Is Sovereign to Save Through Suffering

Acts 8:1-8 (pew Bible pg. 916)

The book of Acts opens with Jesus' final earthly words to his disciples "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." (1:8) This simple, yet profound blueprint for world evangelization was about to unfold. Yet the outreach of the church never reached beyond the walls of Jerusalem until Stephen's death and the intense persecution it precipitated. After Stephen's stoning, "Following the church through Acts is like following a wounded deer through a forest. Drops of blood mark the trail." (Kent Hughes)

Today we encounter a truth that is found throughout Scripture. What God's enemies mean for evil, God means for good. (Gen. 50:20). God's sovereign plans and purposes are not thwarted by opposition and the persecution of His people. In fact, just the opposite is true, as we see in today's passage. God is sovereign to bring joy and salvation through sorrow and persecution.

Sovereign over the realities of our broken world: (Acts 8:1-3)

- Enemies of the gospel
- Persecution of the church
- Pain of death

Sovereign over the salvation of the unreached world (Acts 8:4-8)

- Running for their lives with the Word of Life
- Breaking down barriers with the gospel of Christ
- Validating the gospel with the power of Christ
- Transformed lives with the joy of Christ
