Think about this week's questions for group discussion:

What are the best ways to continue to remember our access to God in Christ and grow in that understanding?

Can you share a personal testimony of a time "through the valley of Baca" when God granted you strength and joy for the continued journey ahead?

What new commitments or changes might God be leading you or your family to make as life returns to "normal" that would help you stay better focused on the Pilgrim's journey that you are on? How can you pursue creating highways in our heart to Zion?
