Think about this week's questions for group discussion:

What effects do the realities presented in v. 89-91 have on the issues or situations that make you most anxious or unsettled right now? If you were to make a list of statements (in your own words) from these verses to reference, what would that list include?

Based on our study in Psalm 119 up to this point, how would you describe what it looks like to "delight" in God's Word? In what ways does this description challenge your own posture toward God's Word?

What actions, reactions, thoughts, and/or emotions are you exhibiting that might expose a lack of belief in the sufficiency of God's Word? What should your response to this honest evaluation be?
