Sermon Notes

Fourfold Prayer of Response

Psalm 119:169-176 [Taw] (pew Bible pg. 516)

Our study through Psalm 119 has revealed many beautiful truths about God's Word, as well as many ways we should respond to it. This last stanza, the Taw stanza, can be read and understood as a prayer that includes 4 such responses to all we have seen and heard.

1. We should respond with a recognition of complete dependency. (v. 169-170)
2. We should respond with enduring praise. (v. 171-172)
3. We should respond in humble affection. (v. 173-174)
4. We should respond in sober hope. (v. 175-176)

Weekly Discipleship Guide

Sunday

In your journal, reflect on today's sermon by answering the following:

I never knew:

I was challenged:

I was reminded:

I was convicted:

A question I still have:

A truth I could share:

Know

Monday

Spend some time today doing the following:

Read the sermon passage again.

Select a portion of this week's sermon passage to memorize this week.

Write your selected portion and read it to yourself at least 10 times throughout the day.

Know > Be

Tuesday

In your journal, spend some time writing about the following:

Read the sermon passage again.

Write a prayer of response, guided by the passage.

(May include adoration, confession/repentance, thanksgiving, petition, etc...)

Write your selected portion of the Scripture several times to aid in memorization.

Be

Wednesday

Think about this week's questions for group discussion:

How have you felt compelled through the study of Psalm 119 to respond yourself?

Did the illustration about working your job or participating in a hobby help you understand what it looks like to embody the Word? In what ways has Psalm 119 let us to do this?

How have the truths that we have learned about God's word through the study helped you uniquely during this difficult season this year?

Be > Do

Thursday

In your journal, spend some time considering the following:

What insights have you had while internalizing this week's passage?

How specifically will you seek to apply its truths in your home/workplace/life in general?
