Sermon Notes

Living Hope: “I Know That My Redeemer Lives”

Job 19:25-27

*For I know that my Redeemer lives,
and at the last he will stand upon the earth.
And after my skin has been thus destroyed,
yet in my flesh I shall see God,
whom I shall see for myself,
and my eyes shall behold, and not another.
My heart faints within me!*

Job’s Amazing Testimony: Future hope from the depths of bitter despair

Weekly Discipleship Guide

Know

What does God intend for me to know?
In your journal, use the following prompts to write some truths that stood out from this week's message.

I never knew...	I was reminded...	A question I still have...
I was challenged...	I was convicted...	A truth I could share...
I was encouraged to...		I need to dig deeper into...

Be (Consider)

What does God's Word lead me to prayerfully consider?
In your journal, use the following questions to write some prompts to use in praying through this week's passage.

Is there a command to obey?	Am I convicted to confess any sin?
How am I compelled to exalt God?	Is there a sin to avoid?
Is there a promise to claim?	How do I need to rest in Jesus/the gospel?
Is there a principle to follow?	How can I pray for someone else?
Is there an example to follow?	What am I compelled to love or desire?

Do (Yield)

How does God's Word call me to yield my life? In your journal, write your answers and thoughts in response to the following questions.

How has God used the reality of the resurrection to refocus your heart on hope in difficult seasons or in the midst of suffering in the past?

How have you been able to point others to hope through sharing the reality of the resurrection? Why should we be careful to include resurrection in the way we share Jesus with others?

What has been one meditation that has gripped your heart in a profound way in these weeks leading up to and the celebration of Resurrection Sunday?
