Sermon Notes

How the Gospel Informs Our Perspective

Philippians 1:12-30 (pew Bible pg. 980)

The Philippians were concerned about Paul. But Paul's concern was not for his own needs, but for the advancement of the gospel and the Gospel growth of others. Through this passage, Paul informs the Philippians of his situation, encourages them with the progress of the gospel, and invites them to take on his attitude of commitment to Jesus and His Gospel. Though this passage, all believers are called to live with a gospel focus that leads to an abiding concern for other's salvation and spiritual growth.

1. A Gospel focus enables us to participate in Gospel Advancement
For the believer - Jesus is LIFE

Paul's Display of Gospel focus

Paul's Description of a Gospel focused life - a life worthy of the Gospel

2. A Gospel focus enables us to approach death with joyful expectation -
To Die is Gain
